

Covers loss of revenue during an actual system outage that occurs as a result of a hacking or virus attack.

Examples:

- Virus/malware that makes data unreadable or inaccessible
- Insured's inability to make sales or provide services due to lack of access to their stored information.